SizeDerived: 180x22mm

Description

Power through tough applications quickly with the next generation BlazeX STEEL

Features & Benefits

Ceramic micro-fracturing grain constantly self-sharpens, exposing new sharp edges, for a better cut rate and longer disc life

Stronger fibre backing provides better face-to-surface grinding, but also resists tearing in heavy-duty applications

Specially designed for use on carbon steel, indicated on the back of every disc, for easy disc identification.
